Alma Mater

*Fairest of all our dear Mississippi rising in state as the crest of a hill, Staunch as a rock is our dear
Alma Mater, round her so noble our hopes ever live. When in the future, our hearts may be yearning for the bright scenes of our dear college youth, back to the portals of our memories turning, clear gleams they beacon of virtue and truth. M. C., we hail thee, our dear Mississippi, queen of our hearts, no foe shall alarm; faithful and loyal thy children will ever cherish thy mem'ry, acknowledge thy charm.*

C. 2

Dear Students,

The 2000-01 academic year is a historic one for Mississippi College in that we celebrated our 175th anniversary of our founding as Hampstead Academy on January 24, 1826. Our age sets us apart from most institutions in the United States by being among the oldest, and especially in light of our having granted the first baccalaureate degrees to women in the United States in 1831. We have celebrated this year with our motto "Faithful to Our Legacy" with the highlight being our Convocation on January 24, 2001.

Universities are complex organizations. There are so many stakeholders in the sphere of influence - students, faculty, staff, trustees, alumni, donors, friends and Mississippi Baptists. Each is important to our overall success. However, perhaps the most defining stakeholder in a university's existence is the student, and eventual alumnus. Students pass through the university, influence our culture, influenced by our culture, receive an excellent education, and then move on to places of employment and service. As former students and graduates, they define us. Successful graduates reflect well upon us. Service minded, compassionate individuals reflect well upon us. We are proud of them, and we treasure their attachment to this venerable institution.

It is appropriate, then, that the 2001 Tribesman in our 175th year of existence is dedicated to our alumni and former students who have shaped us and defined us. You are scattered around the world in hundreds of types of occupations and places of service. We appreciate your influence on our history, and we value your connection with us in the future.

*Sincerely,
Dr. Howell Todd
President of the College*

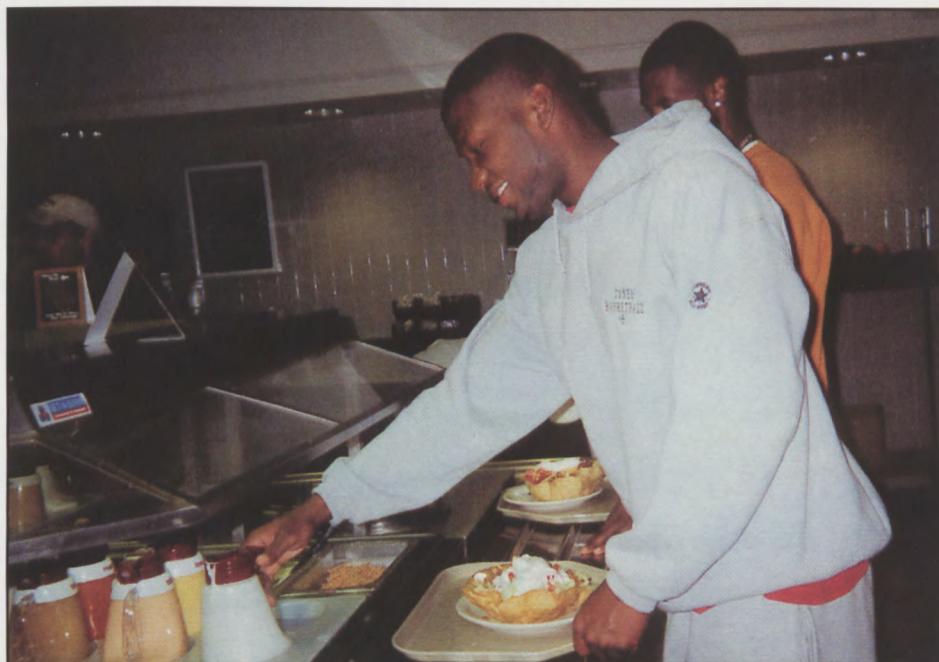

Faculty, Staff and Administration,

Throughout the 175 years of her existence, Mississippi College has continued to attract young men and women of excellence. Our students are some of the best and brightest you will find, and our alumni go on to accomplish great things in every walk of life. Ask any of these accomplished men and women what makes, and has made their college experience such a tremendous one and they will tell you, without hesitation, that it is the spirit that pervades this campus from the moment they set foot here. It is truly a place where faith and learning are valued; a place where students come to be enriched and to grow, a place where people are not only educated, but nurtured. As anyone with experience in academia can attest, this atmosphere of genuine care for students is not average, nor is it easy. It takes hours upon hours of tireless effort and a desire to produce not only high statistics, but changed lives.

As we celebrate this tremendous milestone in the life of our institution we the students, on behalf of the many who have gone before us and the many who will come after us, wish to extend congratulations and heartfelt gratitude to the many faculty, staff, and administrators who have poured their lives into this great place. You have opened not only your classrooms and offices, but your homes and lives to us, and for this we will never be able to thank you enough. From the clean halls, to the study sessions and time taken to talk to us, your dedication continues to be a tribute to this institution and a challenge to all. May your legacy you have continued always be the standard for us all as we "depart to share our culture with all mankind."

What do you say to someone on their 175th birthday? We ponder this question as we look back over the 175 years of Faculty, Staff and Students who have shared their service with the insitution, each other and the community around us as a whole. The endless hours, efforts and emotions poured into their work must not go unrecognized. This years Tribesman is dedicated to the purpose of acknowledging these aspects of Mississippi College.

In this years edition, we hope to exemplify MC's pursuit of service through student life and the Christian values we as an institution adhere to.

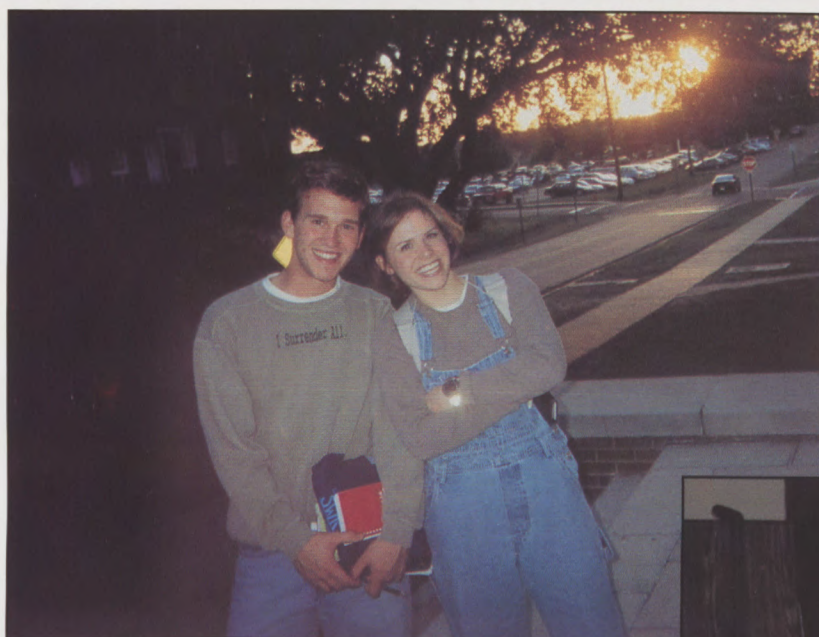

"For the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ"

Spirit of MC

If you are listening to music or playing games in the Quad, worshipping in Provine Chapel, serving at the Baptist Childrens Village, cheering on the Choctaws, or just studying in the library, you have experienced the spirit of MC. MC is truly a place of growth and learning, and for 175 years students have grown to love this great school.

With God whose puppets, best and worst,
Are We: there is no last or first."*

-Robert Browning

Mississippi College is devoted to helping students help others. That very ideal presents the foundation for this Christian Institution in which we as students are encouraged to serve our community and our fellow man under the model of Jesus Christ. Student service opportunities are offered by tribes and clubs and also the campus' Community Service Center. Freshman, Lane Brown, a service center worker, says, "We want to touch our community any way that we can." Proverbs 19:17 says, "He who is kind to the poor, lends to the Lord. And He will reward him for what he has done."

Worship is coming into God's presence in love, adoration and devotion, recognizing Him not for what He does, but for who He is. King David said, "Glorify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together." (Psalm 34:3, KJV). Jesus Christ is the founder of this institution and it is Him who we exalt. To God be the glory for all He has done with us through us and for us.

Homecoming is a time of celebration and festivities, and this year was no exception. There were plenty of activities throughout the week. To kick things off Joe White and Ginny Owens put on a free event in A.E. Wood Colliseum. Tuesday night a local band, P33, performed in the Piazza, and Hampsteads sold drinks and deserts for half price. Thursday night the cheerleaders pumped us up for the big game. This year Follies were performed on Friday the 13th under a full moon. Students, parents, and Alumni packed Swor Auditorium for the much-anticipated show. This year, as always, Homecoming was a great week filled with memories and experiences that will last a lifetime.

Homecoming week came to a climax on Saturday, October 14. The festivities began that morning and continued late into the night including events for students and alumni. The campus began stirring that morning when the tribes and clubs hosted brunches. The campus really began to come alive about 1:00 as different groups from all over campus began to line up for the parade. Afterwards the Naturals gave a performance in Swor Auditorium. As evening approached everyone migrated to Robinson Hale stadium for the big game. Kick off was at 6:00 and the Homecoming court was presented at half time. Although we lost the game, the celebration continued afterward with the dance in Vicksburg featuring Meet the Press.

The honors section of the Tribesman is another way to honor and reward those students who have had such an impact on the university. It is with that purpose in mind that this section of each Tribesman is dedicated to the character and integrity of MC in hope that it will always remain an institution of truth and virtue.

“Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things.”

2000-2001 Mr. and Miss Mississippi College

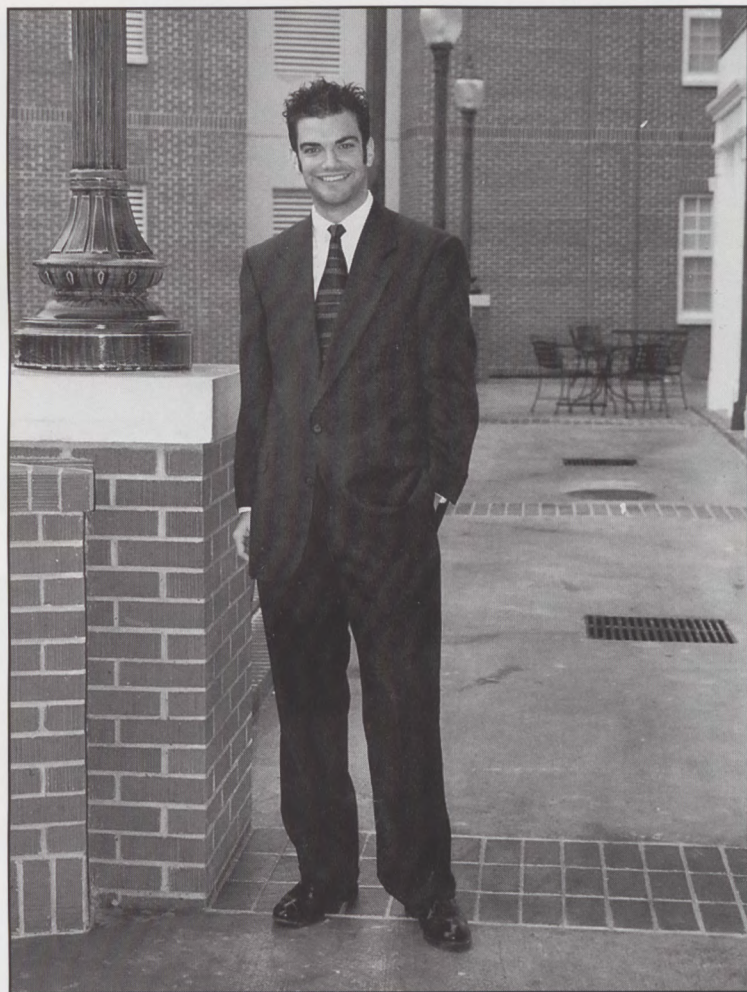

Rebekah Carol Carter

Miss MC, Rebekah Carter, is a nursing major who is active in the BPU, FCA, Laguna Social Tribe, Mortar Board, Student Government Association, Girls Soccer, and Mu Kappa. Rebekah is a Resident Assistant, Shawreth Sweetheart, member of Who's Who and the Dean's List and this years Homecoming Maid of Honor.

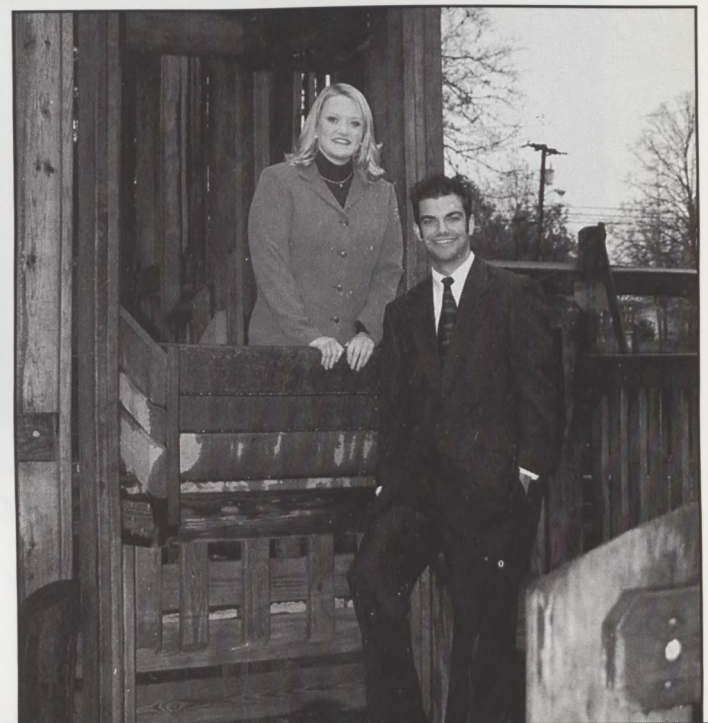

Mr. MC, Michael Pritchard, is a Business Administration major who is active in SGA, Shawreth Mens Club, Swannanoa Social Tribe (beau) and Intramural Sports. Michael is secretary of the senior class, and was an escort for this years homecoming court.

Michael Paul Pritchard

Rebekah and Michael feel, "Mr. and Miss MC is not all about fame and fortune. You have to take time out to 'be a kid' every now and then!"

(right) Men's clubs strive to serve the community, one child at a time.

Each year the clubs and organizations of Mississippi College perform acts of service for the school, as well as the community surrounding it. This year was nothing different. Clubs provided books for children, clothes for the homeless, and food for the needy (even our furry friends weren't left out). Mississippi College is a true act of service in and of itself.

"...the mere resolve not to be useless, and the honest desire to help other people, will, in the quickest and delicatest ways, improve yourself."

Row 2: Jonathan Bradshaw, Treasurer; William Waller, Chief of Staff; Graham Carner, President; Karl Moore, Campus Activities Board Chairman; Lee Nettles, Men's Affairs Board Chairman.

The Student Government Association, composed of all students, annually elects a student body president and other officers to promote student welfare, to perpetuate college customs and traditions, and to train in the principles of democratic government preparing for distinguished citizenship. These officers, together with representatives elected from the residence halls, cooperate with the administration in promoting well ordered conduct among the students and enforcing the regulations of the College, as well as those of the students. The Association functions through its executive, legislative, and judicial branches.

The Senate is one of the best voices for the students of MC. Together with the House of Representatives, the Senate works with administration to make improvements in a variety of areas. The Senate, along with the House of Representatives makes up the Legislative branch of the SGA. The Senate acts in the interest of the student body in formation of constitutional law.

Like the Senate, the House of Representatives consists of students elected by the student body. Representatives are determined by the classes, teams, organizations, and residence halls that are represented in the House.

In each of us God has planted a special talent. Each of these talents are unique in some way shape or form. It is up to us to do something with this wonderful gift God has given us. In this section you will see many of the talented students we have here at MC. Some students are singers, some actors and some have talents most do not even know about.

"Let the arts inform you and guide you toward excellence. Whether you choose a career in the arts or not, keep the arts at the center of your consciousness, because beyond all else the arts will best inform you of the nature of human excellence."

- Bryan Lindsay

God gives each of us many abilities. We each choose whether or not to use those which were given to us. The coaching staff here at Mississippi College, along with students and fans, help bring out the best of the athletic abilities and passions of the athletes here at MC.

"I again saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, and the battle is not to the warriors, and neither is bread to the wise, nor wealth to the discerning, nor favor to men of ability; for time and chance over take them all."

The people here at Mississippi College make the school what it is today. It is the presence of God that makes these people who they are and gives them the desire to serve one another. Is your heart in service for the Lord and for others, or is it for yourself?

"Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness; Come before Him with joyful singing. Know that the Lord Himself is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; We are His people and the sheep of His pasture."

Psalms 100: 1-3

President of Mississippi College

Howell W. Todd

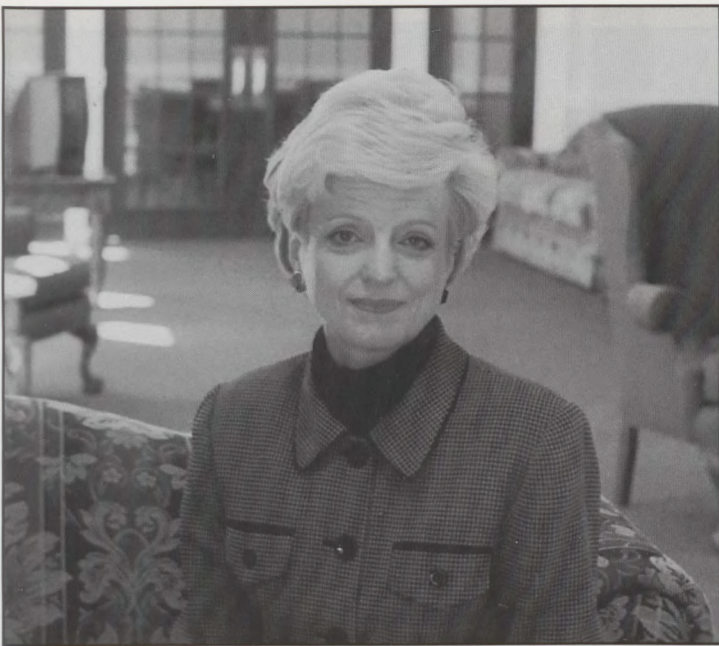

I appreciate the work of our Tribesman staff for 2001. They have worked hard to produce a memory for all of us. Sometimes we forget the importance of these works of history, especially if viewed in the "near term", but later in life, they provide great conversation pieces and remembrances of great times..

Best wishes to our seniors who leave us for other endeavors -- whether jobs, additional education, or other activities. We look forward to your returning to visit with us and letting us share the joy of your accomplishments.

Sincerely,

Howell W. Todd

WOW!! Mississippi College is 175 years old this year. What a legacy to be a part of. In last year's Tribesman, we took a look back on that legacy and the things that the people of the past had left for us to carry on and take with us as we endure the changes and lessons that come with attending such an institution. This year's edition of the Tribesman is one of looking forward. Taking what the "legacy" has given us and putting it into action. Service is a HUGE part of the Mississippi College legacy not only of the students to the community, the school itself to the students and the community, but rather all of that as a whole. The faculty, staff and administration of Mississippi College are what give the students of the institution the encouragement, support and knowledge needed to get through per-important years of one's about all the service to the students and vice that the students community and to ministration as well, question that I, my-back and think for a minute. WHO DO I SERVE? Galatians 5:13 says; "You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather serve one another in love." If we are serving each other to better ourselves and to get to the top, then aren't we missing the whole point. Our focus should be on Jesus and serving Him through others, not for ourselves. Mississippi College strives to instill this in each and everyone of the students, faculty, staff, and administration that walk onto this campus, but if we cannot learn to live our lives focused on serving Christ through our service to others then our time here is misspent.

 Take the virtues, morals and lessons you have learned here, whether from each other, from the professors you may come in contact with or whomever, to learn how to use the type of service gift that Christ has given you and share it to Honor Him...you will be rewarded in the end! In conclusion, while we serve our Lord we are also reminded to be "True to Our Legacy" here at Mississippi College.
